This magnificent property located in La Turbie is to die for. The entrance is usually on the side road, but it is possible to reach the House from the side. The entrance is on a very large living room with warm colors, with stone walls and a modern decoration, the cocooning atmosphere. There is a fireplace and Bay Windows with view on the ground, as well as the kitchen and a WC for guests on the side. A staircase gives access to spacious rooms and rustic bathrooms upstairs. The floor of the House is mainly parquet, for warmth, and the stone walls to evoke the traditional and authentic of the home side.

The field is accessible from the windows. For your lunch in the summer, a large wooden under an Arbor table is installed outdoors, near the windows in the living room. The land is relatively flat, it has been possible to install, for the pleasure of the young, a swing! There is also an inflatable pool as well as a garden area for green hands! This large garden is mainly delimited by trees, but also with more modern barricades.
