Located in a quiet and residential area of the Principality of Monaco, the "GRAND IDA" real estate complex is a modern project consisting of three buildings. Blocks B and C have already been delivered and are mostly occupied by Monegasque residents (state-owned housing), while Building A, which will house the proposed apartment, will be delivered at the end of March 2026.

The residence offers a peaceful living environment, with direct access to many shops, especially those located at the bottom of the building, as well as an excellent connection to the Condamine and Fontvieille sectors via public lifts and stair railings. Located on a pedestrian section of Boulevard Rainier III, GRAND IDA guarantees its residents comfort and tranquility.
