A characterful property set in an elevated position within the prestigious Domaine de l'Eau Blanche in Cavalaire. Spread over two levels and offering 350 m² of living space, the villa features six en-suite bedrooms, each with its own private bathroom. A turret recalls the elegance of a château, while blending seamlessly with the modern and refined interior décor. A spacious, light-filled living room opens onto a fully equipped kitchen. A dining room extends the living area in a cosy, intimate curved space, perfect for enjoying festive meals together. Outside, a large swimming pool located below the villa enhances the landscaped garden, complemented by an outdoor terrace. The terrace is furnished with sofas and a dining table, ideal for al fresco meals. The property also includes a pétanque court and a sauna located in one of the bedrooms. Facing south and set on a beautifully landscaped 2,000 m² plot, the villa overlooks the bay of Cavalaire, offering exceptional views.
