In the heart of the Carre des Antiquaires, between the Seine and the University street, on the second floor of a beautiful 18th-century building, a two-room apartment of about 45 m².

It consists of a living room of about 25 m², illuminated by three large windows, an adjacent independent kitchen, a bedroom with storage and en-suite bathroom.

The entire benefits from a ceiling height of 3.10 m and generous sunlight. The volumes and antique elements — Versailles parquet, exposed beams — contribute to the character of the place.

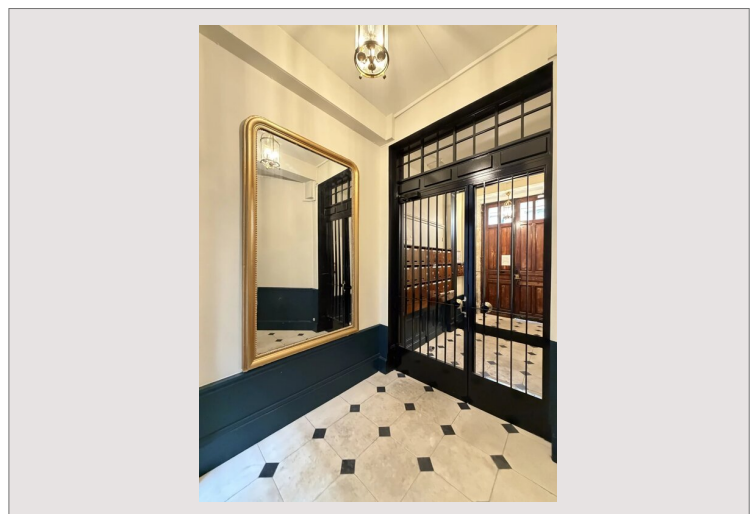

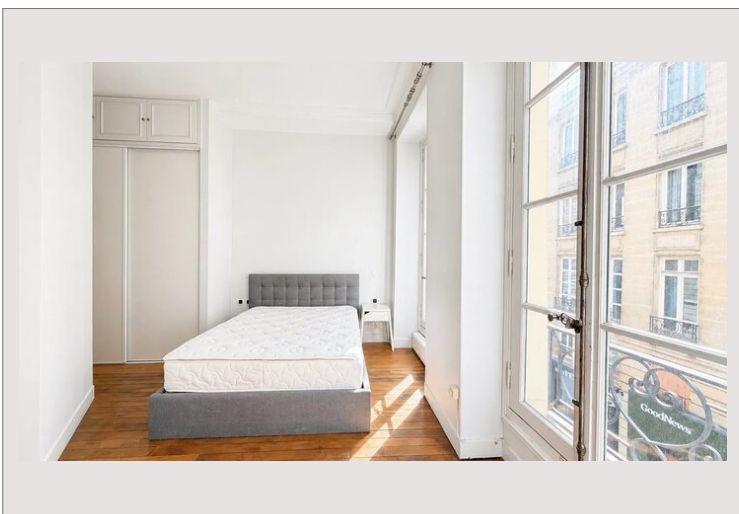

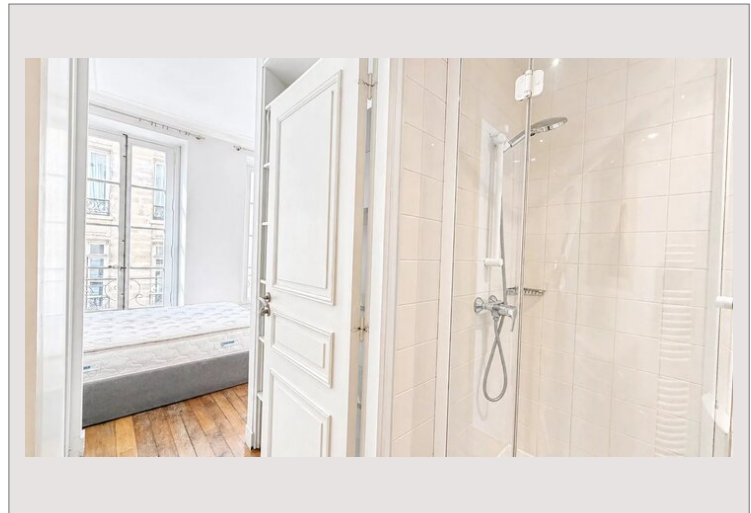

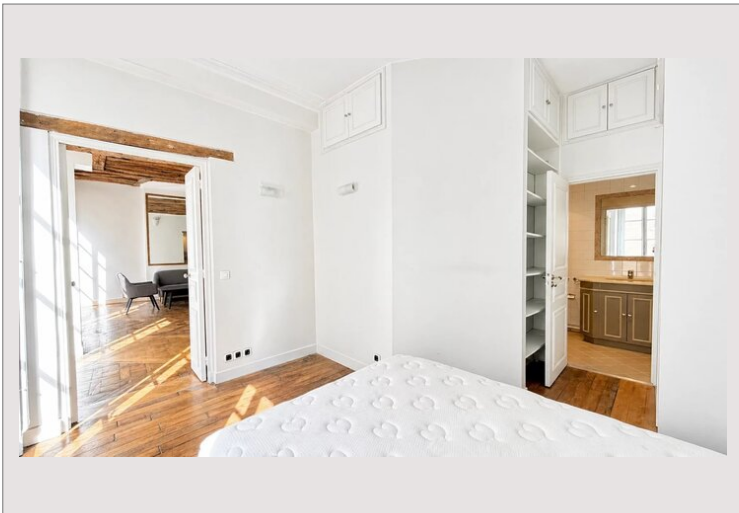

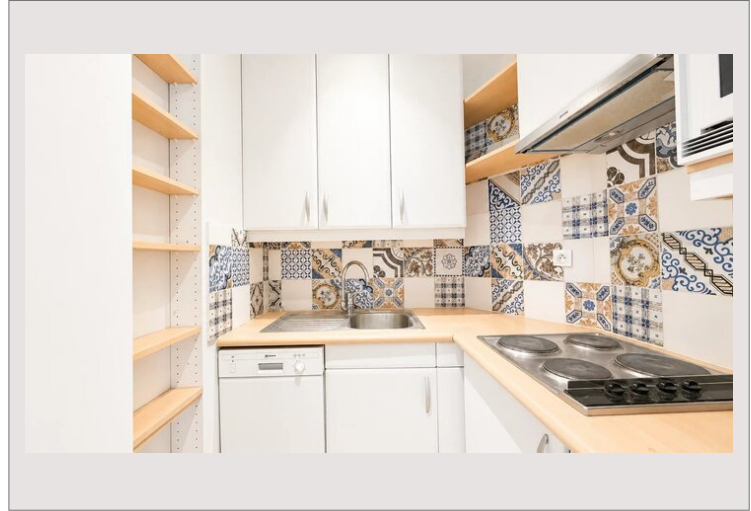

The building offers high-quality common areas, recently renovated.

A cellar of about 10 m² completes this property.
