An absolutely exceptional setting for this rare waterfront property, ideally located within a private seafront estate offering direct access to the sea and one of the most sought-after lifestyles in Saint-Tropez.

A true invitation to the Saint-Tropez art of living, this elegant residence boasts generous volumes and high-end amenities throughout. The property features seven magnificent suites, each benefiting from its own dressing room, en-suite bathroom, and private terrace. Designed to provide absolute comfort and complete privacy, they offer the perfect accommodation for family and guests alike.

The outdoor areas have been carefully designed to make the most of this unique seaside location. A beautifully landscaped garden, expansive sun-drenched terraces, numerous relaxation areas, and a heated swimming pool create an exceptional environment in which to enjoy the Mediterranean lifestyle.

Rare on the Saint-Tropez market, this outstanding property perfectly combines luxury, privacy, and the privilege of direct sea access, while being just minutes from the village center, the port, and the area's renowned beaches.

Ample parking for several vehicles, a laundry room, and a wide range of premium amenities complete this truly exceptional property.
