The particularity of L'Exotique's architecture rises again in a contemporary fashion on the northern face, where you can catch sight of the starting point of the ancient Chemin Des Revoires path. Intimate balconies and large terraces that look out over the sea allow you to enjoy the open air element. The presence of real hanging gardens engrosses you in a natural area surrounding the residence. The great presence of local and exotic nature throughout the entire neighborhood heightens the sensation of being far from the famous, busy streets of Monaco
