Located in Valberg, this chalet of approximately 300 m² offers generous volumes in a warm atmosphere, where wood and stone are combined with more contemporary layouts.

The living spaces are organized around several lounges and a fireplace, with a configuration designed to comfortably receive family and guests.

The chalet has 5 bedrooms and 5 bathrooms, offering everyone an independent and comfortable sleeping area.

The spacious and fully equipped kitchen is integrated into the reception areas, while the openings and terraces enjoy a green environment and unobstructed views of the mountains.

A wellness area completes the property with a sauna, as well as several bathrooms equipped with whirlpool baths.

Built on a plot of approximately 700 m², this chalet is a generous family property, suitable for both a main residence and a holiday home in the mountains.
