Ca' Bianca is a row-end villa on two levels: on the ground floor we find living room, dining room, kitchen, two bedrooms and a bathroom; on the first floor there is a master bedroom with walk in closet and private terrace overlooking the sea, a second room with private terrace, bathroom. Charming outdoor patio with covered porch, lush park surrounding the house.

Tradition and contemporary meet here; the high quality of the finishes and the materials make the rooms original, guaranteeing privacy and giving aesthetic sense to the property: natural Sardinian granite, Cerasarda, handmade pottery and the harmony of glazed terracotta floors.

The villa is fully furnished -custom-made furniture by local craftsmen- and renovated in the classic style of Sardinian tradition. Equipped with air conditioning and heating.
